Up North Arts and CAPS Crew Partner to Benefit Kids

There's a new program in town and Up North Arts is thrilled to be a partner! Cadillac Area Public Schools is offering a new, after school opportunity for kids, called CAPS Crew. Fun classes are being offered to students in 3rd through 5th grades and 6th through 8th grades. UNA is excited to be offering classes for the 6th through 8th graders!

In September, Maddie Masten, Director of Community Schools for CAPS, reached out to UNA, asking if we'd like to partner with them to offer classes in the arts. Bringing the arts to children in the Cadillac area is one of the goals of Up North Arts. What a great opportunity!

The German Market @ UNA

We are seeking volunteers to help paint scenery on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3pm-6pm beginning November 3rd. Bring a friend, bring your kids, or come & make new friends! Snacks/Drinks will be provided.

The committee is also seeking volunteers to work during the German Market. Greeters, guides, runners, etc. November, 9/10/11

If you would like to help with either one of these opportunities email info@upnorthartsinc.com or call 231-468-3040 to leave a message.

During the week of November 7-11, Rosemary Rokita will be offering a "Say it in Japanese" class. Kids will learn Japanese words and phrases, learn about the Japanese culture and do an art project each day. Parents can sign students up online, through CAPS.

Starting the week after Thanksgiving, Dave Foley, retired English teacher, will be offering a Creative Writing class. Students will build on their writing skills and have fun creating and putting their thoughts down on paper.

The first of the year, we'll be offering a choice of three different classes, to be held at Up North Arts. Students can choose between beginning sewing, painting and matting and clay classes.

Spread the word! CAPS Crew will have lots of fun things for our Cadillac kids to do!
