BEYOND THE COLOR WHEEL with Joy Hogg!

Using the color wheel as a tool is extremely helpful for many applications. If you paint, make jewelry, quilt, decorate and even how you dress and put on makeup, this class will prove to be invaluable! There are many, many ways to use the color wheel in much of our everyday lives. Knowledge of the color wheel is just the beginning for choosing colors which create interest movement, mood, or surprises. Remember the song “Is that all there is, my friend?” Learn why yellow can be dominating, how to use value, proximity, weight, and more to make your project magical, not predictable. Hands-on exercises using over 250 colors! Bring scissors for cutting paper, glue and a phone or tablet if available. Ages: 14+ Ability Level: Beginner (able to use scissors proficiently)
